

Every day's a new day at Rancho Sahuarita!

It's a new day at Rancho Sahuarita! New amenities, neighborhoods and friends make every day a new day to explore and discover, make new memories, and celebrate life. Find out why Rancho Sahuarita continues to be a special place to live, learn, work and play!

Rancho Sahuarita's recreational lifestyle has been designed with activities and amenities tailored to fit the way families live, making every day a new day to play and be healthy. Interspersed throughout the community, amenities like the 15-acre lake park provide places where children can be children and even learn how to catch a fish or, adults can enjoy a quiet moment watching the sailboats float by. Miles of paved trails are perfect for walking, running and biking, with a fitness course for added exercise ideas, and the grassy neighborhood parks are a wonderful place for playing ball or enjoying a picnic with friends.

The community continues to grow with a variety of new parks, such as the unique Safari Trail with its life-sized bronze animal statues, and the Butterfly and Desert Interpretative Gardens. These interactive parks will provide educational and discovery experiences for children, and provide a peaceful place for the young at heart. Even the family pet has been thought of with the opening of a "Doggy Park". Dogs can run freely within this fenced, turf dog-run area or cool off in the doggy fountain on those warm Rancho Sahuarita days. Two new recreational areas will also be added to the community and include lap pools and spas, sport courts and "tot lots" for additional family fun.

Rancho Sahuarita is home to a variety of new neighborhoods and homebuilders, providing prospective residents with diverse home offerings, from single story residences to homes over 3,000 square feet. Renowned builders such as Maracay, D.R. Horton, Townsend and Richmond American Homes are constructing four new projects in the community, and Hamco Homes is in the first phase of construction of homes at Rancho Resort, an Active Adult community, located within the western portion of the Rancho Sahuarita master plan.

With on-site schools, a full-service recreation center and a private splash park, every day is full of fun and adventure! Rancho Sahuarita's focus on family values, a recreational lifestyle and a deep respect for nature and the beauty of the surrounding desert, continues to make Rancho Sahuarita the preferred choice of homebuyers in Southern Arizona.

There is something for everyone at Rancho Sahuarita! The Rancho Sahuarita Welcome Center offers daily tours of Club Rancho Sahuarita, and the public is invited to attend the public festivals and gatherings, such as the upcoming Labor Day Weekend Celebration, September 2-4, and experience Rancho Sahuarita's exciting lifestyle.
